A BILL OF IMMENSE VARIETY AND ATTRACTION

514

THEATRE COMIQUE,
Broadway, opposite St. Nicholas Hotel.
Butler A Gilmore.

The Press and Publicin our favor.

What the New York Herald bays, of Jan. 16:—

"Butler & Gilmore beap Pelion upon Ossa at the Comique. This week they have a lady gymnast. Blanche Leopold, and a gentleman in the same line of business, the Lauris, liughey Dougherty, and for the remainder consult small bills. How on earth they can get all the entertainments promised into one eight's bill is a mystery to us."

What the Brooklyn Timesays, Jan 16:—

"THRATRE COMIQUE. This first class place of amusement is situated so conveniently to our District—being opposite the St. Nicholas Hotel, New York—that it it is no wonder the Grand street ferry cars uigidily carry many theatre-goers there from this section of Brooklyn. The entertainment, in plain truth, is a good one, and is so cleverly and rapidly carried on that the interest never flags. The best artisies in the country are to be seen at the 'Comique,' which is nightly growing in favor with our citizens."

DRAMATIC AND FOETIC RECITALS,
Commencing MONDAY EVENING, Jan. 23, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Macready, having intely returned to America after a protracted and most SUGCESSFUL PROFESSIONAL TOUR IN EUROPE, will be most happy to meet once more her many friends and admirers.

As Mrs. Macready recites entirely from memory she is enabled to render her performances with more elecutionary power, and sufficiently dramatic to gratify the finely discriminating portion of the public who love the drama any where but in a theatre.

Lyric Hall is selected by Mrs. Macready above all others or its beautiful and central location as well as for its sape for acoustic advantages.

For further particulars see programms.
